

Job was a prosperous landowner who encountered a series of misfortunes, leading him to question himself and his relation to his God. A grand sweep of ecclesiastical argument brings Job to a new level of insight and acceptance.

Read by Peter Tucker

Meta Co-ordinator: Crln Yldz Ksr

Proof Listener: Pattymarie

Total running time: 01:56:37

This recording is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission. For more information or to volunteer, visit librivox.org.
Cover picture by Gustave Dore, detail of Job Hearing of His Ruin. Copyright expired in U.S. Cover design by Rachel. This design is in the public domain.